Rotary International in Great Britain and Ireland has adopted this statement of policy in working with children, the vulnerable and those with disability.

The needs and rights of the child, the elderly, the vulnerable and those with disability take priority. It is the duty of every Rotarian to safeguard to the best of their ability the welfare of and prevent the physical, sexual or emotional abuse and neglect of all children, the elderly, persons with disability or otherwise vulnerable persons with whom they come into contact during their Rotarian duties.

All initial enquiries regarding Interact should be addressed to. Pauline Jacques

What is Interact?

Two words: International Action

Club for young people, 12 -18 years

Fellowship, service and international understanding

First Club formed in 1962

150,000 members in 102 countries 6,500 clubs

What's in it for young people?

Belonging to an international network

E-mail correspondents making new friends

Organising the Club themselves

Having fun together, yet “serious”

Broadening horizons at home and overseas

Meeting others at International Rally

Opportunity to make a difference for others

What's in it for teachers?

Help to enhance curriculum: service, international understanding, and values

Promotion of skills of enquiry and communication

Developing skills of participation and responsible action

Citizenship

Interact is no ordinary club. Interact is an exciting place to be where members decide how they would like to help communities, at home and overseas.

Interactors decide which good causes to support and they have a great time in the process as they make new friends all over the world.

Interact clubs are based in schools, colleges, communities and offer amazing opportunities to broaden horizons, develop confidence and improve the lives of others. It will look good on your CV.

If you are aged between 12 and 18, enjoy helping local communities, would like to travel to far-off countries and make new friends, join Interact and discover new challenges.

What are its objectives?

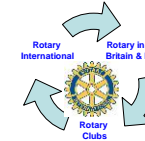

- ❏ Developing leadership skills and personal integrity.
- ❏ Demonstrating helpfulness and respect for others.
- ❏ Understanding the value of individual responsibility and hard work.

- ❏ Advancing international understanding and goodwill.
